

getQuarantinedRowCount

Description
Returns the number of rows "quarantined" in the store and forward system for the specified connection. If the datasource name is not provided, the default for the given context will be used.

Syntax
<code>getQuarantinedRowCount([datasource])</code>